Virginia Energy Hosting Fourth Energy Education Series in Southwest Virginia on May 28th
The agency continues to receive written public comment on energy developments and other Virginia Energy programs during the series.

Scott County., VA- The Virginia Department of Energy (Virginia Energy) continues its series of educational meetings regarding energy projects in southwest Virginia and other programs the agency offers.

The next meeting will be May 28th at 6:00 p.m. at the Scott County Career and Technical Center located at 387 Broadwater Avenue, Gate City, Virginia 24251.

This educational meeting will be an opportunity for the public to learn more about current projects underway, new programs funded by federal grants and the siting process for energy projects. There will also be a Question-and-Answer session on nuclear.

Virginia Energy continues to receive written comment on the work of the agency via email at vaenergy@energy.virginia.gov or comments may be mailed to:
